GUIDE TO YOUTH REENTRY

PALM BEACH COUNTY (PBC)
PUBLIC SAFETY DEPARTMENT
YOUTH REENTRY PROGRAM

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Case managers work with youth and families to provide supportive services to achieve individualized goals.

Case managers are not probation or law enforcement officers.

The goal is to support and incentivize the youth's journey towards successful reentry.

Eligibility:

- Youth returning to PBC from incarceration in the juvenile justice system or sentenced as a minor within the adult criminal justice system.
- No offense or age exclusions.
- Youth previously involved with reentry program may return for services.

LIST OF SERVICES

For youth and family unit.

WHAT IS REENTRY?

The process in which individuals return to the community from a period of incarceration within a criminal or juvenile justice system. Reentry begins at incarceration.

- Case manager assigned at sentencing.
- Meeting basic needs of family.
- Navigating justice system, reentry process, and social services.
- Providing assistance and services to meet needs and prepare for youth's return to the home.
- Individualized case planning.
- Long-term connections to community resources.
- Provide court advocacy.
